

Lakeview United Affirming Statement

You deserve to be welcomed here.

We strive to ensure there are no barriers to inclusion within the Lakeview community: all races, ethnicities, genders, orientations, gender identities, abilities, ages, and people of all socioeconomic status are welcome.

It is imperative that we recognize the value of diversity and are committed to embracing each individual with joy, compassion and love.

At Lakeview we believe that our community, the ministries which they undertake and the assets which it owns are to be used by all to promote equality and love.

Lakeview is committed to seeking out all races, ethnicities, genders, orientations, gender identities, abilities, ages, and people of all socioeconomic status to serve in all levels of governance, committees. Your voice is important and welcomed.

This is our pledge, that we will do our best to welcome you here.

Treaty 4 Territory

We are privileged to gather today in Treaty 4 Territory which is the traditional territory of the Cree peoples and the homeland of the Métis people.

An Invitation to a Shared Rhythm of Availability and Vulnerability

Cam Fraser is our guest worship leader on Feb 8, 22, and March 8. He has invited anyone interested to join in practicing a shared rhythm of spiritual practice over that time. You can sign up to receive a daily email with a short morning prayer and evening examen practice. If you would like to join contact the office or email Cam at cfraser@united-church.ca. On Sunday, Feb 22 and March 8 you can join Cam for coffee and reflection on these practices before the service from 9:30-10am

Seniors – Planning Ahead Program

The next Seniors – Planning Ahead Program has been scheduled to run every Tuesday and Thursday beginning on February 24 to March 12, 2026. If you have any questions about the program or would like to be added to the waitlist, please contact Rhonda at 306-581-9057.

Truth and Reconciliation Learning for Non-Indigenous Peoples – being offered by the Regina Native Outreach Ministry. The course consists of four 2.5-hour sessions presented at Heritage United on Tuesdays afternoons and evenings in March. This course deals with heavy, difficult subjects like racism, white privilege, white guilt, oppression, marginalization, systemic injustices, abuse, denialism, colonization and decolonization. For more information contact Cindy Dorr at 306-533-6858

Income Tax Receipts

Tax receipts for 2025 are ready for pick-up in the Welcome Centre. If you made a donation to Lakeview in 2025 for more than $20 by offering envelope, PAR, cheque or e-transfer, where we can identify you as the donor, you will be eligible to receive a tax receipt. Donations made through Canada Helps are receipted by Canada Helps. If you are expecting a receipt and there isn't one with your name on it, it means we are missing your mailing address and/or e-mail address. Please contact Ron at r.hopkinson@sasktel.net or text of phone 639-590-6718 if your receipt is missing.
